

How I Feel About Me

Selma Dawani

Learning Fundamentals &
Educational Therapy

"How I Feel About Me" is part of a new character education curriculum I am working on. Character education has so much to do with a person's success and happiness in life that I am passionate to get this program completed.

It is our job as educators and parents to help coach our future generation to live the most prosperous and useful life utilizing their own given talents.

SO EXCITED!!!

Please follow my shop to get updates when each section is added. The first installment is RESPECT.

DIRECTIONS

Use the following self-assessment to see the child's confidence in certain areas in their life. You can then have a short discussion using each picture as a prompt to understand more about how the child feels about their abilities and also their interests.

How I Feel About Me

Getting Dressed

Watching TV

Running

Drawing & Writing
Stories

Listening to Stories

Singing Music

Reading Books

Playing Computer

